

Return Guidelines

Regular Baptist Press requires Return Authorizations

Regular Baptist Press (RBP) counts it a privilege to minister to you through the use of curriculum, Bible studies, Vacation Bible School, and other educational resource materials.

In an effort to simplify and expedite the accurate processing of your returns and to ensure that you receive credit due in a timely manner, RBP requires that a Return Authorization (RA) reference number be assigned on all products prior to the return of the products to RBP for credit. The RA number will now be mandatory before returns will be accepted by RBP.

What is a Return Authorization? An RA reference number is a required authorized number provided by RBP that links directly to your account to ensure credit is issued to your account as quickly as possible. By obtaining this RA reference number, your return is preapproved for credit before we receive the product. This reference number is linked to your account and is set up to include the discounts at which the product was purchased and to confirm that the product is returnable. With a preapproved return, the process of issuing credit to your account is faster, more efficient, and more accurate.

How do I get a Return Authorization (RA)? There are two ways to obtain an RA reference number: (1) by contacting Customer Service directly at 800-727-4440, and (2) use our downloadable form, and fax in your request to 847-843-3757. You need to know your invoice number(s), item or ISBN number(s) (your invoice or pick list has these numbers), and quantities to be returned. Please take a few moments to gather this information prior to requesting your RA reference number.

- Quick Response: Contact Customer Service directly at 800-727-4440
- Manual Response: Use our form and fax in your request to 847-843-3757 (downloadable form). Once you have requested your RA, you will receive a follow-up call with the assigned RA reference number.
- Important: To prevent delay, please do not request the same RA multiple times or through various channels.
- One (1) RA reference number per invoice.

What if I don't follow these guidelines?

RBP is looking to efficiently partner with you in your business and ministry needs.

- Choosing to not follow these guidelines may significantly delay the issuing of credit to your account.
- Any returns not following the procedure outlined in this document will be credited at 45% of the price paid.
- Requests for credit may be denied. If you request the product be returned to you, you are responsible for the return postage—which will be billed to your account.
- Any return received without a valid RA reference number printed on the outside of the package may be refused and returned to you without credit at your expense.

How soon should I expect credit to my account?

- Returns that follow these established guidelines will be processed within 2 to 4 weeks from the date received at RBP.
- Please keep in mind that our goal is to process every return as quickly as possible; however, during heavy volume and peak periods, slight delays may happen.
- Once your return has been processed, RBP will mail you a copy of your credit memo.
- It is important that you do not take deductions on future payments to RBP until you have received your credit memo. Taking deductions from your account before credit is issued may cause you to incur late charges on outstanding balances.
